

Money Saved Through Anty Drudge.

Mrs. Youngwife (at telephone)—"Hello Harry, you don't need to order those new tablecloths and napkins at Blashman's after all. Anty Drudge came in this morning and showed me how Fels-Naptha soap would take the stains out of the old ones. They're as clean and white as new now."

Anty Drudge—"You just keep on using Fels-Naptha, Deary, and it'll save you buying lots of things—everything you wash will wear so much longer. It'll save your health and beauty, too."

Stains are the great trial of a woman who does the family wash in the old way. Coffee stains, fruit stains, egg stains, occasionally blood stains, and many others which defy all ordinary soaps and hard rubbing as well. In despair, the housewife boils the clothes until their fibre is softened and weakened, but even then the shadows of the stains remain.

Such stains are easy for Fels-Naptha soap. They are but minute particles of colored matter clinging to threads of the cloth. The Fels-Naptha dissolves them into tiny atoms which can't cling to anything. A rinsing separates them from the clothes entirely. The stain is gone, leaving the clothes clean, white and pure. And mind you, all this is done in cold or lukewarm water, without boiling or hard rubbing. Fels-Naptha does not in the slightest degree harm the fibre of the cloth as boiling does. No other soap, no matter what it is called, will take out stains without boiling. Be sure to get the genuine Fels-Naptha. It comes in the red and green wrapper.

Following the ceremony, a large reception and banquet was tendered the happy couple. Roses and ferns in profusion were used in decorating.

The popularity of the bride and groom was emphasized by a grand charivari in which all of Ely participated.

Mr. and Mrs. Scowcroft arrived in Ogden Thursday, and will make their home here.

COSTLEY-HOWELL.

A most beautiful church wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Good Shepherd at high noon yesterday, Miss Marian Catherine Costley and Judge James Albert Howell being the high contracting parties. The church was decorated with an abundance of pink and white sweet peas, Easter lilies and ferns. At each pew was a large bouquet of flowers while the rear of the edifice was banked with Easter lilies and ferns.

The church was filled with a large and fashionable audience, the majority of ladies being exquisitely gowned. The ushers were Fred Burt and F. C. Schramm.

To the strains of sweet wedding music, the members of the bridal party made their way to the altar, where the bride was given away by her brother, William W. Costley, and the impressive Episcopal ring service was read by Rev. Mr. W. W. Fleetwood.

The bride wore a rich gown of white hand-made lace over white silk and a veil caught in her hair by a diamond and pearl sunburst, a gift of the groom. She carried a large shower bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaids, Misses Leonore Samson and Miss Margaret Taylor, of Salt Lake, were daintily attired in pink and, with the maid of honor, Miss Eva Erb, who was gowned in white lace, empire style, carried bouquets of pink and white sweet peas. The groom was attended by Charles Humphris.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, little Misses Ruth Winter and Almira Bagley, in pretty white dresses, each bore to the altar a white satin cushion, upon which husband and wife knelt.

Following the wedding services, a large and brilliant reception was held from 2 to 4 o'clock at the home of the groom's parents, 2349 Adams avenue, fully two hundred guests being in attendance. Mrs. Will Howell and Mrs. Margaret E. Perkins, of Boise, aunt of the groom, assisted in receiving the ladies, while Fred Burt and F. C. Schramm received the gentlemen. A stringed orchestra on the balcony furnished music during the reception and refreshments and punch were served.

The home was a veritable flower garden. The color scheme in the reception room was blue and white, white sweet peas and blue larkspurs being the predominant flowers. The dining room was done in red and white, red and white sweet peas and ferns being used. The table had for its centerpiece the bride's cake, and sweet peas and ferns were scattered prominently yet artistically over the table cloth.

Behind the punch bowl was a bank of blossoms and green.

At 4 o'clock the bridal party, including, besides the bride and groom, Mr. Reese Howell, parents of the groom; Mrs. Daniel Costley, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. William Costley, Mr. and Mrs. Will Howell, Charles Humphris, Miss Eva Erb, Miss Margaret Taylor, Miss Leonore Samson, Mrs. Perkins and Fred Burt, left in automobiles for Salt Lake City, where they were entertained at dinner at the University club.

At 7 o'clock in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Judge Howell left for the coast and before their return will visit Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland and Seattle.

Mrs. Howell is a graduate of the State University and has been a teacher in the Ogden public schools. Mr. Howell is judge of the Second district court, and has served in that capacity several years.
